

Devon Dowsers (and also Tamar Dowsers) member Nigel Twinn announces the publication of his new book – a collaboration with Christopher Strong – entitled Autobiography of a sceptical dowser – practising intuition in every aspect of living – which is now available from Penwith Press. Please see <http://www.penwithpress.co.uk> for details.

As many readers who have met him will know, Christopher was not only one of the most experienced and respected dowsers of his generation, but he was also a consummate raconteur in his own right.

While the book describes his remarkable life's journey, primarily in his own words, the selected extracts from a portfolio running into thousands of successful case studies, spread across several decades and numerous countries, form the core of this fascinating, and often highly amusing, epic.

Nigel reports that working with Christopher was both a pleasure and a privilege and adds that his own contribution (other than in getting the saga into print) has been to record the essence of Christopher's many challenges and adventures. These have resulted in the development of a wonderfully integrated outlook on life that few – even amongst the ranks of senior dowsing professionals – can match.

We congratulate Nigel on his achievement and wish both him every future success.
