

The Sun and The Serpent* by Hamish Miller & Paul Broadhurst

Book review: Anon (April 2017)

I found this book absolutely brilliant!

I am a novice dowser and this book was really informative. It explains all about the Michael and Mary Lines that run from Carn Les Boel in Cornwall to Hopton in Norfolk.

The authors describe their journey over a period of years, and make it a very interesting read. Also it made me want to visit the places they describe.

I have no hesitation in recommending this book.
