Breast milk 1 shows flowers and feathers (by Member Rachel Robertson using Veda Austins Crystallography Technique)

Breast milk image 2 shows more flowers and feathers
- Veda has said this is very similar to the egg albumen ice crystallography she has done. (by Member Rachel Robertson using Veda Austins Crystallography Technique).

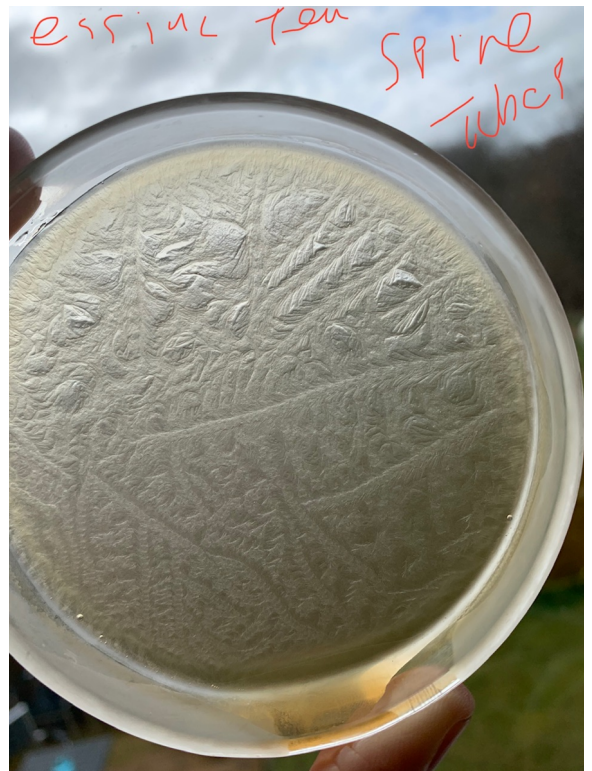

Breast milk 3 image I dipped a 4 leaf clover into the milk and it showed me a 5 leaf clover which I have also found a couple of before doing this dish as well as lots of 4 leaf clovers. (by Member Rachel Robertson using Veda Austins Crystallography Technique)

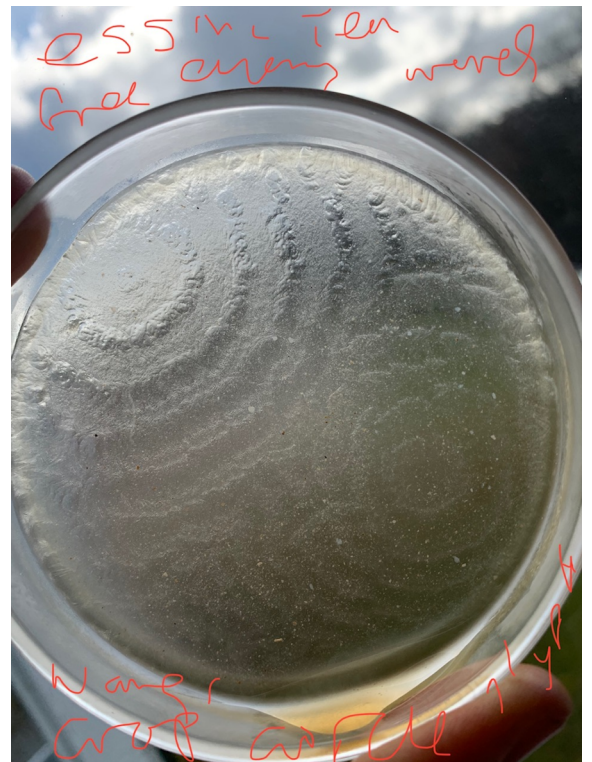

Breast milk 4 image was overlaid over an ultrasound pic of my daughter and I think this dish shows a darker shadow outline of a foetal position. (by Member Rachel Robertson using Veda Austins Crystallography Technique)

Essiac tea 1 image is showing spine/vein like patterns.

Essiac tea 2 tea showing waves and possible crop circle hydroglyphs. (by Member Rachel Robertson using Veda Austins Crystallography Technique)

Essiac tea 3 is showing Veda's free energy hydroglyph and waves. (by Member Rachel Robertson using Veda Austins Crystallography Technique)

Essiac tea 4 image showing a decorative star meaning electrical charge. (by Member Rachel Robertson using Veda Austins Crystallography Technique)

Spring water 1 image I was thinking of pleiades and specifically taygeta (not sure I've spelt that right) and star seeds. I can see the tips of 2 giant message glyphs touching - they kind of look wing like, I can also see winter trees, as well as a flower on vine glyph for sacred. An empty star for imagination/inspiration. A fern hexagon glyph for gratitude and lots of ladders for information. So could be saying an inspirational message full of sacred information about change. Spring water 2 alien face image, is spring water I collected from hatherleigh, devon, Showing a spiralling pattern with a skull/face/alien like image at the centre. (by Member Rachel Robertson using Veda Austins Crystallography Technique)

Water with pulsatilla homeopathy image is water with homeopathy pulsatilla dissolved in, this is showing the lungs creation glyph. (by Member Rachel Robertson using Veda Austins Crystallography Technique
