

Introduction to Dowsing Course

Sunday 10th November 2024 10.00am for 10.30 am to 4.00 pm at Spreyton Village Hall EX17 5DX

Numbers limited to 18

Cost £30 to members of Devon Dowsers

£35 to non-members

Just about everyone can dowse, so this course aims to get you dowsing from the start, and provides a practical opportunity to try different dowsing tools such as rods and pendulums to dowse both tangible (e.g. water pipes, drains) as well as intangible targets (e.g. personal hydration, auras and earth energy lines).

You will gain:

- ❖ Some history of dowsing together with its uses over the years as well as current applications
- ❖ An understanding of dowsing ethics
- ❖ Some methods to keep yourself protected
- ❖ An insight into how to focus your mind, get in the “dowsing zone”, set intent, and how to ask for permissions
- ❖ Your own “Yes”/”No” code, to undertake information dowsing
- ❖ Some skills in using L rods and a pendulum

You will have the opportunity to dowse for the following:

- ❖ flowing water, water pipes and drains
- ❖ earth energy lines, their polarity, and geopathic stress
- ❖ personal hydration, the human aura, vitamin and mineral deficiencies
- ❖ hidden objects.
- ❖ Trees

Dowsing specialities

We will discuss examples of applications of dowsing such as finding water/minerals; finding lost objects; archaeology; ancient sites; earth energies; healing; spiritual/psychic; and house clearing.

Practice

We will suggest some ways you can practise your dowsing skills and continue learning more about dowsing. A Review date on Zoom will be arranged a month after the course.

Resources
